Napa man convicted of molestation

By LESLIE WEINFELD

Register Staff Writer

A Napa man was convicted by a Superior Court jury today of molesting a young boy who was a member of his Boy Scout troop and with whom family he was close friends.

A five-woman, seven-man jury deliberated some two hours before convicting Charles Edward Lawrence, 32, of two counts of lewd and lascivious behavior and one count of oral copulation with a minor under 14.

The jury also made special findings on each count that force was used, and that Lawrence occupied a position of special trust with the victim. Lawrence was acquitted of charges of kidnapping the boy for molestation purposes.

Through his attorney, Lawrence indicated the verdict will be appealed.

Although Lawrence has been free on $30,000 bail, he was remanded to custody in Napa County jail today to await a hearing Wednesday in which the County Probation Department will make recommendations on whether he can continue to stay out of jail. A sentencing date may also be set at that time.

Patrick Clancy, Lawrence's lawyer, also said he would ask at the sentencing for bail on appeal of the case, which would mean Lawrence would remain free until the appeal had been decided.

During the four-day trial, the prosecution based much of its case on a tape recording of a call the victim placed to Lawrence that was taped by authorities on the case.

In it, the young boy asks Lawrence about the molestation incidents and mentions he is considering telling his parents.

The boy also tells Lawrence he has already told another young friend, to which Lawrence replied, "I guess the cat's out of the bag."

In defense testimony Wednesday, Lawrence said he used that phrase to indicate the victim had told a false story to his friends, and that he was worried such a tale could

"ruin" him if it was circulated widely.

He said his relationship with the victim, whom he has known since about age four, resulted from a lack of interest on the part of the boy's father.

Lawrence said he took the child hiking and fishing, and also built a skateboard ramp for him at one point.

Lawrence, who testified he was "confused" by the boy's call and allegations, said he eventually told the youth, "You know I'd kill myself for doing what I've done" to placate the youth's insistence that incidents of molestation had occurred.

However, under cross examination by Mark Sheedy, deputy district attorney, Lawrence said he declined to tell the boy to get his parents and get the matter straightened out immediately.

"I had no reason to believe it to be true, so why get upset about it," Lawrence said Wednesday. "There was nothing I could do about it circulating. If something had come up, I would have discussed it."

Courts

A Superior Court judge today refused to allow bail for Charles Edward Lawrence of Napa, convicted last week of molesting a member of his Boy Scout troop whose family he had known for many years.

Citing community safety and a Probation Department recommendation against bail, Judge Philip Champlin ordered Lawrence, 32, held in Napa County Jail without bail until sentencing June 29.

Lawrence indicated upon his conviction by a jury Friday he intended to appeal, and his lawyer sought to have him released on bail pending the outcome of that motion.

Citing a defense-procured psychiatric evaluation that indicated his client could be classified as a situational, one-time offender rather than a psychopathic one, defense lawyer Patrick Clancy said Lawrence could be trusted to abide by bail conditions that would keep him away from the boy and his family.

Mark Sheedy, deputy district attorney, said the independent court-ordered psychiatric evaluation indicated the defendant has the capacity to commit another offense and is not a candidate for therapy.

"I'm not saying he will (re-offend), but...it cannot be ruled out," Sheedy said.

Champlin called the situation "terribly sad," but noted Lawrence had been convicted of "very serious charges" including the use of force.

"These kinds of things go to the very heart of parental fears. The safety of the community weighs heavily in favor of following the Probation Department recommendation against bail," Champlin said.

BAIL EXPIRES

An 82-year-old Calistoga man accused of killing his wife last May, allegedly because she was in failing health, was released on his own recognizance in Superior Court today.

Robert Edwards is accused of murdering his wife, Muriel M. Edwards, who was found in the couple's mobile home with a plastic sheet over her head.

Police and court records indicate she had suffered a stroke recently before her death.

Mr. Edwards had been free on a $20,000 bail bond set to expire next month, so his attorney requested the OR release from Judge Philip Champlin based on the defendant's community standing and lack of prior offenses.

The case will be tried in Superior Court Sept. 10.

MOLESTATION SENTENCE

Sentencing for an elderly St. Helena man convicted of annoying or molesting an underage child in August 1987, was put off pending an extensive psychiatric evaluation.

Robert Gaut, 77, will be incarcerated at the California Medical Facility in Vacaville for the evaluation, expected to last several months, said Mark Sheedy, deputy district attorney.

He will return to court at a later date with recommendations on whether probation or a prison sentence would be appropriate.

He will receive credit for the time spent at the prison medical facility.

Enclosed you will find the court proceedings regarding Jerry Mabry of this council. As you will recall, Mr. Mabry was placed on the confidential list several months ago.

According to court records, Mr. Mabry was on probation for cultivating marijuana at the time of his most recent arrest.

In the matter of Charles Lawrence, he had initially pleaded no contest to the child molestation charges. However, he has since asked for a re-hearing and has pleaded innocent to those charges. He has been released on bail and his case is now back in the Municipal court.

As soon as other information is received, I shall forward it to you for inclusion in the file.

TWO BRIGHT IDEAS... Who thinks these things up, anyway? Seems the city is allowing a major truck stop to be built at Salvador and 29 - right across the street from Salvador Elementary School. And the county is going to build a toxic waste dump in American Canyon, 500 feet from Donaldson Way Elementary School.

HOW THEY TRAPPED HIM... The untold story about the assistant Scout Master accused of molesting at least one of the boys in his troop, is that the molestation took place for nearly five years...but that's not all. According to insiders, the sister of the scout was also allegedly molested...seems he was a friend of the family for years. How he was "caught" was when the Sheriff's Office taped a phone conversation between the boy and the assistant Scout Master. When the boy said he was going to tell his parents, the assistant Scout Master supposedly stated that if the youth wouldn't tell anyone, he would stop the sexual activities. Bingo! The man was arrested.

IT WAS REAR... ...ago we told you about the "confessions" of a former drug dealer and "payoffs" of law enforcement officials. The man

Scout master arrested

NAPA — A scout master was arrested Monday on suspicion of molesting a 12-year-old Boy Scout, police said.

Investigators are preparing to interview all other members of Boy Scout Troop #24 in Napa to see if there are any other molest victims, Detective Leroy Anderson said.

"Right now I've got nothing that indicates there are any other victims but obviously I have to question all other members of the troop," Anderson said.

Booked into Napa County Jail on suspicion of oral copulation and felony child molest was Charles E. Lawrence, 31, of Napa. Lawrence was being held in lieu of $15,000 bail Monday night.

Anderson said a search of Lawrence's home turned up evidence indicating child molest. He would not elaborate.

Police said the parents of the 12-year-old boy levied the child molestation charges Sunday evening.

"At least two incidents are documented, one which occurred about a week-and-a-half ago and the other was over the summer," Anderson said.

Anderson would not elaborate on the documentation.

Anderson said Lawrence, who has no criminal record, was dismissed Monday from the Boy Scouts. He had been affiliated with troop #24 since 1987.

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are therefore compelled that you sever any relations you may have with the Boy Scouts of America.

You should understand that the Boy Scouts of America membership is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of membership the BSA seeks to provide for America youth.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed, please write to me within 60 days of the date of this letter, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a Boy Scouts of America member should be reinstated. The procedures for review are attached.
